language certificate, German school, training certificates), Proof of subsistence and health insurance (e.g. proof of income, health insurance certificate) or proof of school or vocational training (school certificate, training contract or certificate from the training center, matriculation certificate).

Please note: If there is an illness or disability that prevents the acquisition of language skills or independent means of subsistence, this must be proven in an appropriate form (for example, specialist medical opinion, proof of institutional care).

The documents and information must always be presented in German. In individual cases, the Aliens Department may require less or further evidence.

Voraussetzungen

- You must have reached the age of 16.
- You must have been in possession of a valid residence permit for at least five years without interruption, which allows you to for family reasons (for example, to join a family member or because of birth in Germany) or for humanitarian reasons (e.g. on the basis of entitlement to asylum or recognition as a refugee in accordance with the Geneva Refugee Convention). has been granted.
- You should be able to demonstrate to the Aliens' Registration Office that you have resided in the Federal territory during the five years (for example, by providing proof of attendance at an educational institution or employment).
- There is no interest in your expulsion from the Federal territory.
- You must not have been sentenced to a juvenile penalty of at least six months or a prison sentence of at least three months or a fine of at least 90 daily rates for an intentional criminal offense in the last three years. The suspension of the imposition of a juvenile sentence on you may also prevent the issuance of a settlement permit.
- If you have reached the age of 18, moreover: You were granted a residence permit while still a minor (the granting of a settlement permit is also possible if you do not reach the five-year time limit until after you have reached the age of majority). You have knowledge of the German language at level B 1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (this is assumed if you have attended a German-language school for more than four years and have achieved at least an "Ausreichend" in German). Your livelihood is secured (for example, through your own income or the income of your parents) or you are in a training relationship that leads to a recognized school or vocational training qualification or a university degree (school attendance, in-company training or study).

Please note : If you suffer from an illness or disability that prevents you from acquiring the language skills or earning your own living, you do not have to meet these requirements.

Kosten

Cost amount (fixed):

- 55,00 for underage applicants
- 113,00 for adult applicants

Remark:

Additional fees may apply for the issuance of the settlement permit in the form of the electronic residence permit (eAT card), which can also be used as electronic proof of identity.

Lower fees may apply for Turkish nationals.

Verfahrensablauf

- The settlement permit must be applied for before the validity of your current residence permit expires.
- If you have not yet reached the age of 18, you may not submit the application yourself, but require a representative (as a rule, the application is submitted by the custodial parents).
- Find out whether the relevant foreigners authority allows you to submit the application online or has a special application form available.
- If the application can only be submitted in person, make an appointment at the Foreigners' Registration Office. In the case of online application, the Aliens' Registration Office will contact you after receiving the application to make an appointment.
- If you are under the age of 18, you must be accompanied by at least one legal guardian (usually a parent) at the personal appearance. If you have joint custody, the parents must always appear together at the authority and jointly file the application on your behalf. If one of the parents cannot appear in person, the other parent with custody must issue a written power of attorney for the application.

- During the appointment, your identity as well as your documents will be checked (please bring all documents, if possible in original, to the appointment).
- If your application is approved, your fingerprints will be taken for the production of the settlement permit in the form of a new electronic residence title (eAT card for short).
- The Foreigners' Registration Office will order the production of the eAT card from the Bundesdruckerei. After completion, you will receive information - if necessary via your representative - and can pick up the eAT card at the responsible office. The eAT card must always be collected in person.
- If your application is rejected, you will receive a rejection notice - if necessary via your representative.

Bearbeitungsdauer

Duration (with span): approx. 6 to 8 weeks Note for further information on processing time: The processing time may vary depending on the workload of the Foreigners' Registration Office. It takes about 4 to 6 weeks for the Bundesdruckerei to produce the electronic residence permit.

Frist

Duration (for span): 6 to 8 weeks Remark (for further information on the deadline): At least 6 to 8 weeks before the expiration of the current residence permit, the application should be received by the Foreigners' Registration Office. Remark (for further information on the deadline): The settlement permit is issued for an unlimited period of time. Only the electronic residence permit (eAT card) is issued for a limited period of time and must be renewed at the end of its validity. You can appeal against the rejection within one month after notification - if necessary through the representative.

Sachverhalt

Hinweise

- Children who have not yet reached the age of 18 may not submit the application themselves, but must be represented by a person with legal capacity (for example, by a parent with custody).
- When issuing a settlement permit, the foreigners authority may take into account circumstances such as the residence status of the parents or custodial parent.
- The procedure is usually conducted in German.
- Please make sure that you provide correct and complete information to the best of your knowledge. This is the only way the Foreigners' Registration Office can process your request without major delays.
- Incorrect or incomplete information can slow down the procedure and be disadvantageous for you. In a serious case, incorrect or incomplete information that is not completed or corrected in time vis-à-vis the Aliens' Registration Office may result in the revocation of residence rights already granted, a fine, a prison sentence of up to three years or expulsion from the Federal territory.

Rechtsbehelf

- Appeal against the decision of the Foreigners' Registration Office
- Action before the court named in the notice of appeal if the appeal is not granted

Kurztext

- Settlement Permit Issuance for Minor Children
- Foreign children born and/or raised in the Federal Republic of Germany can be granted an independent, unlimited right of residence (settlement permit).
