Teaser	If you want to set up as a non-medical practitioner to practice medicine, you need a license.
Volltext	A Heilpraktiker is a person who practices medicine professionally without being licensed as a doctor. The practice of medicine is any professional or commercial activity to diagnose, cure or alleviate illness, suffering or physical injury in humans, even if it is carried out in the service of others. In addition, the activity must require specialist medical knowledge and must not cause any damage to health. To practise medicine, you must apply for and obtain a license from the competent authority.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Identity card or passport, • for name changes, a birth certificate/name change certificate • Curriculum vitae in tabular form • If applicable, a registration certificate (if the identification document is not an identity card) • Information from the Federal Central Register (document type 0) • Proof of successful graduation from school • Certificate from a registered doctor • Proof of criminal proceedings • Further documents and evidence if necessary
Voraussetzungen	You must • be at least 25 years old, • have at least a secondary school leaving certificate or another equivalent qualification, • be able to prove their physical and mental aptitude to practise medicine by means of a medical certificate
