Teaser	If you want to work as a farrier apprentice blacksmith, you need to be licensed by the state.
Volltext	Farriery in Germany may only be carried out by certified and state-approved farriers. This does not apply to the practice of horse and claw shoeing by employees or trainees subject to social insurance contributions, insofar as they work under the supervision of farriers or farriers' assistants. This does not include veterinary work or work that merely involves the usual everyday cleaning and care of hooves and claws. Hoof shoeing includes the totality of all operations performed on a hoof for the purpose of protection, health maintenance, correction or treatment. Hoof shoeing includes the totality of all operations involved in the application, repair, or removal of a shoe to the hoof of an animal when that animal is to be used as a draft, pack, or riding animal. The specialized training at farriery schools may only be carried out by certified and state-approved farriery instructors. Examination certificates in the field of farriery and hoof shoeing obtained outside Germany may be treated as equivalent in accordance with the Farriery Recognition Ordinance. This ordinance also regulates the
