Teaser	If you are the sole heir, you will often need a certificate of inheritance as proof of your inheritance rights. You can have this restricted to the estate in Germany if the estate is located both in Germany and abroad.
Volltext	A sole heir certificate attests that you are the sole legal successor to the deceased. This is the case if the deceased person has designated you as the sole or universal heir in the will or on the basis of an inheritance contract. Or if you succeed to the estate as the sole heir within the framework of intestate succession because all other co-heirs have renounced the inheritance. You can also apply to the probate court for a restricted certificate of inheritance. If there is an estate abroad in the form of objects, this certificate of inheritance is limited to the estate located in Germany. https://www.gesetze-im-internet.de/famfg/_352c.html
