Teaser	If you want to sell or offer goods or services commercially outside your business without being asked to do so by a customer, or if you want to carry out entertainment activities as a showman, you must apply for a travelling trade permit.
Volltext	You are engaged in a travelling trade if you offer goods for sale on a commercial basis without a prior order (appointment) and are active outside your commercial establishment (Section 4 (3) GewO) or without having such an establishment. The same applies if you seek out (distribute) orders for goods or purchase goods, offer services or seek out orders for services or carry out entertainment activities as a showman or in the manner of a showman. However, there are also activities that can be classified as travelling trade, but for which there is no obligation to obtain a permit. You do not need a travel trade permit in the following cases: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> You occasionally offer goods for sale at trade fairs, exhibitions, public festivals or on special occasions with the permission of the competent authority; you sell home-grown produce from agriculture and forestry, market gardening, fruit-growing and horticulture, poultry farming and bee-keeping as well as hunting and fishing;
