Teaser	You must provide documented proof of completed instruction in the security industry if you are employed and perform security tasks in the security industry on your own authority.
Volltext	Instruction is provided at the Chamber of Commerce and Industry and comprises at least 40 hours of lessons during which you must be present without any absences. Among other things, you will receive instruction on your legal rights and obligations as a security guard, along with techniques for dealing with people in conflict situations. As instruction is provided in German, your language skills should be at least CEFR level B1 (CEFR: Common European Framework of Reference for Languages). Following the instruction, and in order to receive the certificate, you will be required to answer written and
