Verfahrensablauf	When you apply for social compensation benefits, the social compensation law institution will check whether you are entitled to a monthly care allowance for widows and widowers. You will receive a notification of the decision and, if applicable, information on the benefits granted as well as other necessary evidence. You can apply for social compensation benefits online or in writing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> If necessary, you can make an appointment with your contact person at the pension authority or at your responsible office. We will then discuss with you whether you are entitled to social compensation benefits and what support services can be offered. If necessary, the case management team can discuss the further procedure and possible entitlements to benefits with you that go beyond the general duty to provide information and advice. If you are entitled to social compensation benefits, your contact person will discuss the next steps with you. The contact person will provide you with the relevant documents. If necessary, complete the documents, enclose the required evidence or supporting documents and send the documents back to your contact person. Your claims will be determined ex officio on the basis of the documents. The authority will inform you of the result in the form of a decision, which is usually sent to you by letter. If entitlements to benefits have been determined, you will receive an approval notice. If no entitlements are determined, you will receive a rejection notice. You also have the option of submitting the application online. To do this, you must complete the online application and upload the necessary supporting documents. The eligible costs and approved cash benefits will be
