Teaser	If you want to transport animals as a transport company, you need a license from the competent authority. You can find out more here.
Volltext	The regulations on the protection of animals during transportation apply to the transportation of animals. If you transport animals over a distance of more than 65 kilometers, you must be licensed. In addition, all persons involved in the transportation of animals in your company must be in possession of a certificate of competence issued by the authorities. These requirements may also apply to the transportation of animals as part of an agricultural or part-time activity. Further requirements must be met for transports over 8 hours.
