Teaser	Would you like to inspect the electoral roll for the Bundestag election, for example to check your data for accuracy or completeness? You can find out more here.
Volltext	An official electoral roll is kept in each electoral district. You are entered in the voters' register if you are eligible to vote on election day and are registered with your main residence in the respective city or municipality on a certain cut-off date. Eligible voters can inspect the voters' register from the 20th to the 16th day before the election on working days during the general opening hours of your municipality. The municipal authority will announce the inspection times and the exact regulations in good time. You can inspect the electoral roll at the municipal administration office during general opening hours. You can lodge an objection to the electoral roll in writing within the inspection period. If your data is incorrect or incomplete or if you have not been included in the electoral roll, it will be corrected or you will be included in the electoral roll within the objection period.
