Volltext	In a regional spatial development plan or regional plan, the responsible planning authority determines how the limited resource of space is to be used in a particular region. As a citizen, company or public body, you can participate in the preparation or amendment of a regional plan from the time of publication. Your participation gives you the opportunity to contribute to the planning process. You can also inspect the regional plan in public and submit comments. You have at least one month from the date of publication to do so. The regional plan can cover various possible uses of the area, such as • Residential, • commercial, • transportation, • infrastructure, • recreation and • nature and the environment. The regional plan generally consists of • Plan drawing with various maps and plans, for example Zoning map with the spatial division of the area, transportation plan, map of environmental protection areas • Texts specifying the following: Indication of development objectives Guidelines and possible
