tax warehouse. A tax warehouse is a place approved by the main customs office where the products may be manufactured, processed, treated, stored, received or dispatched.

- You deliver coffee that has already been taxed to a recipient in another member state of the European Union (EU).
- You deliver goods containing coffee that have already been taxed to a recipient in another EU member state or export the goods to a third country outside the EU.
- You destroy coffee that has already been taxed at your expense at a location other than your tax warehouse.
- You destroy goods containing coffee that have already been taxed in your manufacturing plant.

If you want to transport taxed coffee or goods containing coffee to another member state in return for tax relief or export goods containing coffee, you need prior approval from the main customs office in the form of a commitment certificate. You must apply for this using an official form.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

If you include coffee in your tax warehouse:

- Records in accordance with the officially prescribed form (business records may be permitted)

If you deliver coffee or goods containing coffee to another Member State or to a third country:

- for deliveries to third countries or third territories outside the EU: the proof of export
- for deliveries to a recipient in another EU member state: the delivery note
- on request, a document or proof containing the information listed in Section 33 (1) and Section 34 (2) of the Coffee Tax Implementing Regulation
- Form 1846 "Application for the issuance of a certificate of exemption from coffee tax"
- Form 1847 "List of goods annexed to the application (Form 1846) for a commitment certificate for coffee and/or goods containing coffee" territories, follow 2 steps: Step 1: You apply for a commitment for relief. Step 2: If you have received a commitment slip, submit an application for tax relief.

- The main customs office checks your documents.
- You will receive a decision approving or rejecting your application.

Apply for relief online:

- To apply for discharge online, you need a permit.
- Call up the online application on the customs portal on the Internet. This will guide you step by step through the necessary information, which you can enter electronically.
- Upload the required documents as a file and send the application.
- The main customs office will check your details and documents.
- You will receive a decision approving or rejecting your application.

The main customs office from whose district you operate your company is responsible or, if you do not operate a company, in whose district you have your place of residence. If your company is operated from a location outside Germany or if you do not have a place of residence in Germany, the main customs office in whose district you first appear for tax purposes is responsible.
