Teaser	If you are a shipping company established in the EU, you can apply for a liner service for customs purposes. In a liner shipping service, you transport Union goods from one EU port to another EU port without the goods having to undergo customs clearance again there.
Volltext	Shipping companies established in the European Union (EU) may, under certain conditions, apply for a liner service for customs purposes. Goods transported by sea normally leave the customs territory of the European Union and must be re-customs cleared on arrival at the port of destination. However, as a holder of the authorisation to establish a regular shipping service for customs purposes, you can transport Union goods by sea between ports of the European Union without having to undergo customs clearance again at the port of destination. It is also possible to carry non-Union goods by regular shipping services, but for these goods the transit procedure is compulsory.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	If you are not an Authorised Economic Operator (AEO), please complete the Customs Authorisation Questionnaire Parts I and II in addition to the main application. In addition to the main application, you also hand in the "Supplementary sheet national data". Parts I and II of the Customs Authorization Questionnaire as well as the "Supplementary Sheet

Modul

Sachverhalt

"National Data" are to be submitted directly to the competent main customs office with reference to the application number generated by the EU Trader Portal.

Voraussetzungen

Authorisation is granted only to shipping companies established in the European Union which have not committed any serious or repeated infringements of customs and tax legislation or serious criminal offences in the course of their economic activity. General conditions for the establishment of a regular shipping service for customs purposes:

- a formal authorisation must be in place,
- only seaports within the European Union may be used,
- no free zones in a port of the European Union may be entered,
- no goods may be transhipped at sea,
- the names of the vessels engaged on the regular service, the port at which the vessel commences the service and the ports of call must be registered with the authorising customs authority.

Kosten

There are no costs.

Verfahrensablauf

- If you wish to apply for an authorisation to set up a regular service, you must submit the application in electronic form via the EU Trader Portal.

Modul

Sachverhalt

- goods carried by sea are in principle non-Union goods, as they regularly leave the customs territory of the Union when crossing the high seas
- when Union goods are transported between ports of the European Union (EU) by sea, they usually have to undergo a new customs treatment at the port of destination, since by leaving the customs territory of the Union they lose their status of Union goods and become non-Union goods
- Authorisation for the establishment of a regular service allows Union goods to be transported between EU ports without having to undergo customs treatment again at the port of destination will only be granted to shipping companies established in the EU must be applied for online via the EU Trader Portal Access to the EU Trader Portal requires an EORI number (Economic Operators Registration and Identification number) and access data. Access data and the EORI number must be applied for separately
- responsible: Main customs office in whose district the main accounts for customs purposes are kept or accessible.
