Teaser	If you violate certain obligations under the Artists' Social Insurance Act, you may be required to pay a warning fee.
Volltext	As an artistically or journalistically self-employed person who is insured under the Artists' Social Insurance Act, you must fulfil certain obligations. The same applies to companies that are subject to the levy obligation under the Artists' Social Insurance Act. The Künstlersozialkasse (KSK) will check whether you have fulfilled these obligations or whether you have acted irregularly. The KSK can impose a warning fine for a minor administrative offence. The warning fine includes, among other things: • the breach of duty, i.e. the administrative offence • the amount of the fine • the requirements for an effective warning • information about your right to comment on the charges in writing The amount of a warning fine depends on the individual case. It can be between EUR 5.00 and EUR 55.00 per offence. You are not entitled to have the KSK punish a minor administrative offence with a warning fine. The KSK can also initiate fine proceedings and impose a fine.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	You do not need to submit any documentation.

Voraussetzungen

The Künstlersozialkasse can impose a warning fine on you under the following conditions:

- You are registered with the KSK insured or operate a business subject to the levy.
- you have acted in a slightly irregular manner in accordance with the Artists' Social Insurance Act

As an insured person, you are acting irregularly under the Artists' Social Insurance Act if you intentionally or negligently:

- fail to provide information, or provide incorrect or incomplete information, when requested to do so,
- do not, incorrectly or incompletely comply with the obligation to provide information or to submit documents when requested to do so, or
- fail to comply with the reporting obligation in good time, correctly or in full.

As a company liable to pay the levy, you are acting in breach of regulations under the Artists' Social Insurance Act if you intentionally or negligently:

- fail to report the assessment basis for the artists' social security levy on time or correctly,
- do not keep records, or do not keep them correctly or completely, or
- do not, incorrectly or incompletely comply with the obligation to provide information or to submit documents when requested to do so.

Kosten

There are no costs for you.

Verfahrensablauf

You will receive a notice of the warning fine without prior notification:

- You will find out what kind of irregular behaviour the KSK is accusing you of and the amount of the fine. If you pay the warning fine, you thereby agree to the warning. If you do not agree with the fine and do not pay it, you can make a written statement about the charges. If you do not pay the fine, the KSK can issue a penalty notice without further notification. This also applies if you have made a written statement.
