Teaser	If you wish to build, modify or dismantle a federal railroad operating facility, you must apply to the Federal Railway Authority (EBA).
Volltext	Federal railroads (EdB) may, if required, build railroad operating facilities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • build • modify or • dismantle them. If you are planning such a project, you must apply for the relevant permit from the Federal Railway Authority (EBA). The operating facilities include in particular <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Railroad tracks • Engineering structures such as bridges, tunnels, culverts • Earthworks such as embankments, cuttings, embankments • Signaling, safety and telecommunications systems • Stations and stops Before constructing, modifying or dismantling such a facility, you must clarify questions together with the EBA in the planning procedure, in particular

Modul
Sachverhalt

- Is the project technically feasible?
- Does the planning comply with the applicable regulations and safety standards?
- Is an environmental impact assessment required for the project - and if so, what is the result of the environmental impact assessment?
- Does the project affect public interests?
- Does the project affect the rights or interests of third parties?
- Can the rights of third parties and the public and private interests be fairly balanced?

On this basis, the EBA decides whether the plans for the construction, modification or dismantling of a railroad operating facility are permissible and whether your application can be approved.
