Teaser	Do you need approval for an exemption from European aviation law or an alternative verification procedure instead of the Acceptable Means of Compliance (AMC)? If so, you must apply to the Federal Aviation Office, provided it is responsible in your case.
Volltext	As a private individual, organization, sole proprietor or other self-employed person, you can apply for the following approvals from the Luftfahrt-Bundesamt (LBA): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>* Approval of an exemption from European aviation law under the flexibility provisions of Regulation (EU) 2018/1139</li> <li>* Approval of an alternative means of compliance instead of the Acceptable Means of Compliance (AMC)</li> </ul> You can apply for alternative means of compliance for the acceptable means of compliance (AMC) of the European Aviation Safety Agency (EASA), provided that they comply with the relevant EU regulation. You must submit proof of this. The verification procedures may relate to the areas of technology and environmental protection, operations and aviation personnel. The LBA is responsible for approving exemptions or alternative certification procedures, provided that the underlying facts fall within the LBA's remit. You can currently apply here for exemptions or alternative certification procedures that affect one of the following legal bases within the LBA's area of responsibility: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>* Regulation (EU) No. 1178/2011</li> <li>* Regulation (EU) No. 748/2012</li> <li>* Regulation (EU) No. 965/2012</li> <li>* Regulation (EU) No. 1321/2014</li> <li>* Regulation (EU) 2015/640</li> <li>* Regulation (EU) 2018/1139 (only Article 11)</li> <li>* Regulation (EU) 2019/945</li> <li>* Regulation (EU) 2019/947</li> </ul>
