Verfahrensablauf

You or your authorized representative can declare your renunciation of German citizenship in writing at the competent German diplomatic mission abroad, directly in writing or online at the Federal Office of Administration (BVA).

Written declaration:

- You can download the form from the BVA website.
- If you live in Germany, please contact your local city or district administration. They will provide you with the appropriate declaration forms.
- If you wish, the local diplomatic mission abroad can help you fill out the form.
- Complete the form in full and sign it.
- Submit the signed declaration by post or in person together with the required supporting documents to your local German diplomatic mission abroad.
- However, it is not compulsory to contact the diplomatic mission abroad. You can also send the declaration directly to the BVA by post.
- The BVA will check your declaration and inform you if further documents and information are required to process the declaration.

Online declaration:

- Go to the website of the federal portal and fill in the form for renouncing German citizenship electronically. Note: You will need your ID card with PIN number for the online function.
- Attach the other required documents as a file.
- Send off your declaration.
- The BVA will check your declaration and request any necessary documents as certified copies.

Completion of the procedure (in writing and online):

- If your waiver declaration is approved, the BVA will send your waiver certificate to your competent German diplomatic mission abroad. They will inform you about the further procedure for handing over the certificate.
- You will lose your German citizenship when the
