Teaser	Register for the customs auction and bid in the auction house of the federal, state and local governments.
Volltext	The Customs Auction is the auction house of the federal, state and local governments. Authorities and public bodies auction items here. These can be • pledged items • seizures • confiscations • lost property • fiscal inheritances • irrecoverable property • discarded administrative objects In around 2,000 auctions every day, you can bid for various items, for example • cars • Valuables such as jewelry or watches • electronics • furniture • tools You will receive information about the items in each auction. This includes • a detailed description • photos • the minimum bid • the duration of the auction

Modul

Sachverhalt

A minimum bid is specified for each item. You can specify a maximum amount that you wish to pay. The electronic bidding agent will automatically bid for you up to your limit. Your bid is binding. However, you can reduce the maximum amount as long as the highest bid has not yet reached this amount. The auction will indicate whether shipping is possible. If not, you must collect the auctioned item from the location.

You must register to take part in an auction.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

You do not need to submit any documents.

Voraussetzungen

You are of legal age and have legal capacity.

Kosten

Registration and use of the web application is free of charge. For items purchased at auction, the costs shown in the respective auction apply.

Verfahrensablauf

- You can take part online in federal, state and local government auctions. To do so, you must register with the customs auction. Call up the customs auction.
 - After registering, you can log in with your e-mail address and password.
 - Take a look at the offers.
 - When you have found a suitable offer, you can place your bid. To do this, enter a maximum amount, i.e. a limit, in the auction detail view.
 - After confirming the amount entry with your password, you have placed a successful bid.
 - If your maximum amount is not exceeded, you, as the highest bidder, can be awarded the item by the main customs office in Giessen at the end of the auction.
 - You will receive a notification by e-mail. For auctions in which the bidding authority has stored payment details, you can access these in your user account immediately after the auction ends.
 - Payment for auctioned items must be made in accordance with the payment method specified in the respective auction.
 - Pay for your auctioned items.
 - Pick up your auctioned items. You will be informed of the pick-up location by e-mail. Shipping is also possible for certain items.

Note: Bids are placed in minimum increments. If a higher bid deviating from the next required minimum bidding step is submitted to the auction platform, the electronic bidding agent is automatically activated. This automatically bids the amount required for the highest bid within the specified minimum increments up to the limit entered. The limit stored in the bidding agent cannot be viewed by third parties. The limit can be reduced by entering a correspondingly lower amount up to the amount of the current maximum bid.

Bearbeitungsdauer

At the end of the auction, the Giessen Main Customs Office will award the lot to the highest bidder. Collection or will be made at the earliest after receipt of payment.

Frist

The payment and collection period is 10 days.
