Sachverhalt

To study at a state or state-recognised university or comparable educational institution in Germany, you need a "Residence Permit for Students".

Hint: Citizens of EU countries can complete an apprenticeship in Germany on the basis of their right to freedom of movement. They must prove that they have sufficient health insurance cover and secure their livelihood if they are not gainfully employed. This also applies to other citizens of the European Economic Area (EEA) and to nationals of Switzerland.

The residence permit for the purpose of training is limited in time and is only valid for this purpose of residence. If the purpose of your stay changes, you must notify the competent authority immediately. In good time before the expiry of the period of validity, you must apply for the extension of the residence permit.

Attention: If you are staying in Germany for training purposes, you cannot obtain a settlement permit.

Verfahrensablauf	Before entering Germany, you may need to apply for a national visa in your home country. After entering the country, you must apply for the residence permit in writing at the Foreigners' Registration Office before your visa expires. Depending on the place of residence, the Foreigners' Registration Office is the city administration or the district office. Since 01.09.2011 you will receive the residence title in the form of a credit card with additional electronic functions. Further information can be found under "Applying for an electronic residence permit (eAT)". Hint: If the approval of the Federal Employment Agency is required (e.g. in the case of in-company training and further education), the Foreigners' Registration Office obtains this in an internal administrative procedure. https://verwaltungsportal.hessen.de/leistung?leistung_id=B100019%3A%3A583464 https://www.hessenfinder.de/portaldeeplink/?tsa_leistung_id=10010093 https://verwaltungsportal.hessen.de/leistung?leistung_id=B100019%3A%3A583464 https://www.hessenfinder.de/portaldeeplink/?tsa_leistung_id=10010093

Hinweise

You would like to complete part of your training here and have already received a residence permit for training purposes in another EU Member State: In most cases, you will also receive a residence permit for Germany.

You have a residence permit for other purposes (e.g. for family reasons) or a settlement permit: In this case, you can take up training in Germany without an additional residence permit.

If you complete qualified vocational training in Germany, you may work up to 10 hours per week, regardless of your training. After successful completion of the qualified vocational training, the authority can extend your residence permit by up to one year under certain conditions. During this time

- you can look for a job appropriate to your degree, provided that it may be filled by foreign nationals, and
- may work without restrictions.
