Sachverhalt

What information must be included in the application?

The application for authorisation of a lottery or draw must contain the following information:

1. the name and address of the organiser,
2. the name and address of the natural person responsible for its implementation,
3. type of event,
4. Season
5. town or sales territory,
6. Purpose of the event,
7. number of lots for sale, and
8. Lot price of the single lot.

As a type of event come

- a lottery,
- a draw lottery,
- a lottery draw,
- a draw draw and
- a tombola (event in closed rooms with a game capital of up to 6,000.00 euros) to be considered.

In a lottery, cash winnings are played, in a lottery material value winnings. The ticket letter contains the immediate decision on the prize, in the draw lottery or draw the winners are determined by "drawing" the winning tickets.

The application must be accompanied by the following documents:

1. the statutes of the organiser,
2. the last corporation tax assessment notice or notice of recognition of the non-profit status of the organiser,
3. if applicable, further evidence proving that the organiser guarantees the proper conduct of the lottery or lottery and the appropriate use of its proceeds,
4. the schedule (explanation see below),
5. the profit plan (explanation see below),
6. a declaration by the organiser that:
7. in the case of local events, a certificate from the competent local authority stating that there are no objections to the organisation of the event, or a place permit.

If, in the technical execution of a lottery or lottery, a commercial lottery organiser or another person acts for remuneration, the contract concluded with those persons shall be attached to the application.

You must submit the application with all documents to the licensing authority no later than 3 weeks before the planned start of the event. If donated prizes are to be played out in a draw, you can submit the final winning plan no later than one week before the event.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

Repertoire The application for approval of a lottery must be accompanied by a game plan.

From the game plan, the amount of the game capital, as a percentage divided into

- Winning amount (value of the winnings to be played),
- lottery or sales tax,
- Costs of the lottery and
- Net yield

loyal.

Care must be taken to ensure that the net income, the profit sum and the costs are in an appropriate relationship to each other. The costs of the event must be kept as low as possible. An appropriate net yield as high as possible shall be achieved. For the net income and the prize amount, at least 30 percent of the fees should be provided for in the schedule and there must be no reason to assume that these shares will not be achieved. When submitting the application, a calculation must be submitted showing the expected costs of the event, the prize amount, the taxes and the net income.

If the prizes are donated and therefore no expenses are required for the provision of the prizes, the net income of the event should amount to at least 50 percent of the capital played.

Sachverhalt

In the case of small lotteries, i.e. lotteries in which the sum of the fees to be paid does not exceed the amount of 40,000.00 euros and the net proceeds are used exclusively and directly for charitable, ecclesiastical or charitable purposes, the net income and the prize amount must only amount to at least 25 percent of the fees.

The schedule also regulates the game operation in general. It shall lay down the conditions under which the possibility of participation shall be opened. In particular, it refers to the financial performance (the stake) of the individual player and regulates the procedure for determining winnings.

Profit plan The application for approval of a lottery must be accompanied by a winning plan. The profit plan contains the type, number and amount of all prizes. Non-cash prizes are listed with an indication of their value.

In the case of division into several series, an overall profit plan shall be drawn up containing the above information, divided into the series envisaged. The profit share of each series must be the same. The main prizes are to be distributed evenly among the individual series.

Voraussetzungen

Prerequisite for the approval of a lottery A licence for a lottery or lottery may only be granted if:

1.

- A licence may not be granted if it cannot be ruled out that the organisation of the lottery promotes the gambling instinct in a special way because of the overall range of games of chance already available, in particular with regard to the number of games of chance already organised or their type or implementation.
- A licence may not be granted if: the schedule stipulates that: the announcement of the draw results takes place more than 2 times a week, the maximum prize exceeds a value of EUR 1,000,000.00 or Portions
