Volltext	A cooperative is a company with unlimited and freely changing number of members. Its purpose is to promote the acquisition or economy of its members by means of a joint business operation. However, the cooperative is not limited to purely economic activities. Through joint operations, the cooperative can also promote the social or cultural interests of its members. A cooperative must be entered in the register of cooperatives. The registration must be made by all members of the board. Registration by an authorised representative is excluded. After successful registration, you will receive a registration notification. Hint: The cooperative entered in the register of cooperatives is a legal entity with legal capacity and, due to the form of company chosen, is automatically a
