| Teaser                   | Every training contract for a recognised training occupation in accordance with the Vocational Training Act must be entered in the register of vocational training.   |
| Volltext                 | Veterinary assistants assist veterinarians in the examination, treatment and care of animals and in advising animal owners. They also carry out organisational and administrative work. The occupation of veterinary assistant is a state-recognized training occupation. The training takes place in the dual system of vocational training at the two places of learning company (veterinary practice or clinic) and vocational school and usually lasts 3 years. The Vocational Training Act requires the conclusion of a written vocational training contract before the start of training. This must be entered immediately (no later than 1 week after completion) in the register of vocational training relationships maintained by the State Chamber of Veterinarians of Hesse. |
| Erforderliche Unterlagen | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The vocational training contract signed by both parties (including legal representation in the case of minors) in triplicate.</li> <li>• 2 copies will be returned after registration (1 each for the instructor and the trainees).</li> <li>• in the case of a shortened duration of training: copies of the relevant documents (e.g. school certificates), informal application with signature of the trainee and the trainer</li> <li>• for trainees who have not yet reached the age of majority at the beginning of the training: copy of the medical certificate of the initial examination</li> <li>• Information on training practice according to the leaflet of the State Chamber of Veterinarians of Hesse</li> </ul>                                     |
