Volltext	The care of children in child day care is usually an offer of public youth welfare. This means that the youth welfare office of the district or the city is the contact person for the legal guardians as well as for the childminders and fathers and is responsible, among other things, for finding a place for the child. For the care of a child in child day care, the parents pay a monthly fee to the responsible youth welfare office.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	The responsible youth welfare office of your district or city will provide you with information on this.
