Teaser
Volltext	The "Act on the Regulation of the Prostitution Industry and the Protection of Persons Working in Prostitution" (Prostitute Protection Act - ProstSchG) came into force nationwide on 1 July 2017. It stipulates that health authorities offer confidential health advice. This includes information about sexually transmitted diseases, pregnancy, contraception, alcohol and drug use and provides an opportunity to reveal an existing predicament. The consultation is the prerequisite for registering the activity with the municipality in which one is predominantly active.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	Identity card, passport or a replacement ID card
Voraussetzungen	All persons working in prostitution must seek health advice in the health department. It is the prerequisite for re-registering the activity with the municipality in which one is predominantly active. Prostitutes who worked before 1 July 2017 must have received health advice by 31 December 2017.
Kosten	Please inquire at the responsible health authority.
Verfahrensablauf	You can inquire about the procedure at the responsible health authority.
Bearbeitungsdauer	The consultation usually lasts about 30 minutes.
