on employment, the insurance obligation continues to exist through your employer.

If you were not compulsorily insured in the statutory pension, health and long-term care insurance before the start of the quarantine or the ban on work, you will receive an appropriate amount of contributions to other insurance by the Darmstadt Regional Council upon request.

The following applies to employers:

You must pay compensation to your employees for six weeks. You can have the amounts paid reimbursed by the Darmstadt Regional Council.

The contributions for compulsory insurance in the statutory pension, nursing care, health and unemployment insurance will also be reimbursed to you.

The following applies to self-employed persons:

You will receive the refund directly from the Darmstadt Regional Council.

Your last annual profit is taken into account for the calculation. This is divided by 12.

You can have contributions to pension, nursing care and health insurance reimbursed.

The following applies to homeworkers:

Unlike the self-employed, your average monthly income is taken into account for the calculation.
