Teaser	You have successfully completed your studies in Germany and have already received a residence permit to look for a job.
Volltext	As a graduate of a German university, you have a legal right to receive a residence permit to look for a job. The residence permit will be issued to you for a maximum of 18 months immediately after your studies. If this maximum period was not used when it was first issued, the residence permit may be extended accordingly. However, if you cannot find a job during these 18 months, an extension is excluded and you are obliged to leave Germany. This residence permit allows gainful employment without restriction.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	- Valid national passport,- proof of secure livelihood (e.g. employment contract and pay slips, bank statements, submission of a declaration of commitment by third parties),- proof of health insurance,- Graduation certificate, certificate or certificate from your university attesting to the successful completion of your studies,- 1 recent biometric photo,- Please ask the Foreigners' Registration Office responsible for you whether you need to submit further documents.
Voraussetzungen	You are in possession of a residence permit for the purpose of looking for a job after successfully completing your studies in Germany. The maximum period of 18 months has not yet been exhausted. In addition, you meet the general requirements for
