Volltext	You can close partial ownership land registers again if all partial ownership rights have been united in your person. The union may have taken place because you have acquired all partial ownership rights by legal transaction, by succession or forced sale. You can also reverse the division if you have always remained the owner of all partial ownership rights after a division into partial ownership because no other owners have joined the community. This requires your application. When the partial ownership land registers are closed, a land register sheet for the property is created again. Any encumbrances of all partial ownership rights with a universal right continue with the same content on the undivided property. If necessary, individual charges are also covered. The encumbrances are therefore

Erforderliche Unterlagen	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• written application for registration</li> <li>• If the application is to contain the registration permit of the owner at the same time, this requires notarial certification</li> <li>• possible consent of third parties</li> </ul>
Voraussetzungen	For the closure of the partial ownership land registers, an application for registration must be made by you or the notary notary. The partial ownership land registers will be closed upon request if all necessary documents have been submitted in due form and there are no grounds for refusal.
Kosten	(as of November 2020) Fixed fee: EUR 50: The collection of the fixed fee by the Land Registry is carried out separately for the cancellation of each partial ownership. In addition to the costs for the activities of the land registry, costs are also incurred for the activities of the notary in accordance with the Court and Notary Costs Act (GNotKG). Please inquire about the amount of the notary costs from the notary working in your case. Information and examples of notary fees can also be found on the website of the Federal Chamber of Notaries.
Verfahrensablauf	You must apply for registration at the Land Registry. As a rule, the notary who certified the application for registration initiates the registration. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The documents required for registration are checked by the responsible registrar at the land registry.</li> <li>• If documents are not complete or in due form, the competent registrar will inform the notary or you in writing and request the submission of the missing documents or the documents (to be certified or certified by a notary) in due form.</li> <li>• If all the necessary documents are available, the responsible registrar will close the partial ownership land registers and at the same time create a new land register sheet for the property.</li> </ul>
