Teaser	Insured persons who are seriously mentally ill and are unable to make use of medical or medically prescribed services independently are entitled to sociotherapy.
Volltext	Are you seriously mentally ill and unable to make use of medical or medically prescribed services independently? Then you are entitled to sociotherapy as a person with statutory health insurance. Sociotherapy includes practical life instructions that enable you to make use of outpatient medical and psychotherapeutic services. The aim is to strengthen your personal responsibility in such a way that you can manage without sociotherapeutic care in the long term. Sociotherapy may be prescribed if it avoids or shortens hospital treatment or if it is necessary but not practicable. Depending on the case of illness, you are entitled to 120 hours of sociotherapy within three years. The health insurance funds conclude contracts with suitable persons or institutions for the provision of sociotherapy.
