Teaser	Insured persons of the statutory health insurance are entitled to medically necessary remedies.
Volltext	As a legally insured person, you are entitled to medically necessary remedies. These are services of physiotherapy, podiatry, voice, speech and speech therapy, occupational therapy and nutritional therapy. The services are provided on medical prescription by approved service providers. Approval by your health insurance company is not required.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	A doctor's prescription is required.
Voraussetzungen	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The dispensing of remedies at the expense of the statutory health insurance funds requires a medical prescription. • Remedies can only be prescribed at the expense of the health insurance funds if they are necessary to: to cure a disease, to prevent its aggravation or to alleviate symptoms of illness, to eliminate a weakening of health which is likely to lead to disease in the foreseeable future, to counteract a threat to the health development of a child, or to avoid or reduce the need for long-term care. • Therapeutic products may only be provided by licensed providers of therapeutic products such as physiotherapists, occupational therapists, speech therapists or speech therapists.
Kosten	Insured persons who have reached the age of 18 must pay 10% of the selling price as a co-payment for therapeutic products, but not less than 5 euros and a maximum of 10 euros; however, in each case not more than the cost of the remedy and an additional 10 euros per prescription.

Modul	Sachverhalt
	If you have a low or no income, you can be exempted from the co-payment upon request. Please contact your health insurance company.
Verfahrensablauf	Check with your health insurance company.
Bearbeitungsdauer
Frist	If the prescription does not specify the latest start of treatment, treatment should be started within 28 calendar days. An urgent start of treatment must be indicated on the prescription. If the treatment of the therapeutic product cannot be commenced during this period, the prescription ceases to be valid.
