Sachverhalt

You also have the same status if you are descended from homeless foreigners and were legally and habitually resident in the Federal Republic of Germany on 01.01.1991.

As a homeless foreigner, you are entitled to naturalisation if you have been legally resident in Germany for at least 7 years and have not been convicted of a criminal offence. This does not apply to sentences of a fine or a juvenile sentence or imprisonment of up to one year, the execution of which has been suspended.

The requirements to be fulfilled by you are less extensive compared to the other naturalisation requirements. And the applicable fee is lower.

In addition, your spouse and your minor children can also be naturalised, even if they have not lived in Germany for as long as you have.

Naturalisation becomes effective upon delivery of the certificate of naturalisation. The competent authority is the nationality authority of your place of residence.
