Teaser	Have you completed further training as a specialist abroad? Then you can apply for recognition as a specialist in Germany under certain conditions.
Volltext	The profession of specialist is regulated in Germany. This means that you need a permit if you want to use the title "specialist" for your specialization in the selected federal state. By training as a specialist, you have acquired a medical specialisation in addition to your qualification as a doctor abroad. To work as a doctor in Germany, you first need a license to practice medicine or a professional license. In order to be able to work as a specialist in Germany, you must also apply for recognition of your specialist training. This allows you to use the title "specialist" in your respective specialization. Note: You may only use the designation for your specialization if there is a corresponding continuing education title in Germany. The permission will be granted by the competent State Medical Association after examination of your documents and requirements.

Verfahrensablauf

Before you submit the application, you must already have a license to practice medicine or a professional license in Germany.

You apply for recognition of your continuing education title as a specialist at the competent State Medical Association:

- First, submit your application and the required documents to the Medical Association of the federal state in which you would like to work.
- If necessary, you will be asked to submit missing documents.
- The competent authority will check whether your professional qualification is equivalent. The professional qualification is equivalent if there are no significant differences between your foreign professional qualification and the German professional
