This declaration shall be repeated annually if the activity so requires.

The competent authority checks whether the notification has the content required by § 15 para. 2 sentence 3 RDG.

Once the notification is complete, the Authority shall carry out a temporary registration or renewal of the registration for a period of one year and arrange for the public announcement in the Legal Services Register.

They are now registered for a period of one year and can be found by the public via the "Publication platform for extrajudicial legal services".

In addition to the registered providers, prohibitions on the provision of legal services can also be viewed via the "Announcement platform for out-of-court legal services". This strengthens the protection of litigants and legal transactions.
