Volltext	The Hessian State Office for Health and Care (HLfGP) monitors the movement of medicinal products for human use at all pharmaceutical companies as well as wholesalers and retailers in Hesse. In addition to a risk graded inspection of companies, the monitoring includes the taking and testing of drug samples. In order for the authorities to fulfill their monitoring obligations, there is a duty of notification (Section 67 of the German Medicines Act (AMG)) for companies and facilities that develop, manufacture, clinically test or residue test, test, store, package, place on the market or otherwise trade in medicinal products. If you wish to engage in retail trade with over-the-counter medicinal products, you must notify us in advance.
