Teaser	If you want to build and/or operate part of a new plant, you must apply for a partial permit from the competent authority.
Volltext	If you want to build and/or operate a part of a plant which, due to its nature or operation, is particularly likely to cause harmful environmental effects or otherwise endanger, significantly disadvantage or significantly nuisance the general public or the neighborhood, you need a partial permit from the competent authority. The authority examines whether there is a legitimate interest in the construction and operation. After a complete examination by the authority, you will receive the decision in the form of a notice.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Required drawings, plans, expert opinions • Explanations and • other documents (if necessary, ask the competent authority).
Voraussetzungen	The partial permit is granted if the fulfilment of the obligations under the Federal Immission Control Act for the sub-project is ensured and if there are no other public law regulations or occupational health and safety concerns to the contrary and a preliminary assessment shows that there are no insurmountable

Verfahrensablauf	The approval procedure requires a written application, which must be accompanied by the drawings, plans, expert opinions and explanations as well as other documents required to check the conditions for approval. • If your application is complete, it must be made public with the documents, if necessary, and then displayed for one month. In simplified approval procedures or when public participation is waived, there is no public interpretation or discussion meeting. • At the latest at the same time as the public announcement of the project, the licensing authority shall at the same time invite the authorities to be involved to submit their opinion on the permit requirements within one month. • If the approval requirements are met, the authority examines whether there is a legitimate interest in the construction and operation of the sub-project. • A preliminary assessment shows whether there are no insurmountable obstacles to the construction and operation of the entire installation with regard to the conditions for partial authorisation. • You will receive the notification of approval or rejection of the sub-project.
Bearbeitungsdauer	3 - 7 Monat(e) Without public participation, it takes three months. If the project has to be carried out with public participation, it will take seven months. The processing period begins for the competent authority when the application for the project is complete. An extension of three months for the procedure is possible.
Frist	Before the implementation of the project
