Volltext	Anyone who wants to operate a restaurant serving alcohol is obliged to submit a business registration 6 weeks before the start of operations under the submission of certain documents. This is to ensure that the restaurant is operated by a reliable trader. If you want to operate a restaurant without serving alcohol , you only have to submit a business registration at the same time as the start of operation. More about business registration - see "Business registration" (service description in the Hessen-Finder) A restaurant is operated by any person who commercially serves beverages and/or food for consumption on the spot, if the establishment is accessible to everyone or certain groups of persons. No anticipated business registration is required if alcoholic beverages
