Volltext	The Voluntary Social Year (FSJ) offers young people the opportunity to get involved in the social sector and gain professional experience at the same time. It consists mainly of practical assistance. An essential part of the FSJ is the pedagogical support to assist, qualify and educate the volunteers. The FSJ provides career guidance and promotes personal development and social skills. An FSJ can be completed in the following areas of social work: • Healthcare • Elderly care • Disability care • Day care centers • Child and youth work It is also possible to work abroad.
