Kurztext
Ansprechpunkt	The road traffic authority of the city or municipality in whose district the event takes place is responsible for granting the permit, with the exception of cities and municipalities with fewer than 50,000 inhabitants. There, the district administrator is responsible as a road traffic authority. A permit or exemption shall be granted upon written request. The road traffic authority examines the application and the submitted documents and hears the bodies to be involved (police and road construction authorities, forestry and nature conservation authorities). The permit or exemption may be subject to conditions and obligations and to orders for traffic regulation and traffic-restricting measures. These measures will be coordinated in advance with the organizer.
