weiterführende Informationen
Hinweise	The information required to calculate the tax deduction amounts, including the church tax liability, is only transmitted electronically. Your employer will be informed of the end of your church tax liability by retrieving the electronic wage tax deduction details (ELStAM) transmitted by the city or municipal administration, which are stored at the Federal Central Tax Office (BZSt). If the tax office has assessed advance payments of church tax for you or if you do not receive income from employment but other income, please submit proof that you have left the church to your local tax office so that church tax is not levied in future. Please also refer to the information sheet linked below
