Volltext	Every day we deal with garbage. And again and again the question arises: Where to put it? In addition, citizens are constantly concerned with the question of how they can save fees by avoiding waste, collecting certain waste separately, composting themselves or choosing other waste containers. According to the Closed Substance Cycle Management Act, public waste disposal authorities are obliged to provide information and advice on all questions of their citizens regarding waste disposal. The public waste disposal authorities in Hesse are the municipalities belonging to the district, the district-free cities and the districts or the special-purpose associations, if the task has been assigned to them. You can contact them with your questions. Hint: There you will also find information on issuance, return or exchange of waste containers.
