(e.g. license to practice medicine or professional permit)

- Proof of basic knowledge of German law and social order (e.g. certificate of successful participation in an orientation course and successful completion of an orientation test) Please note: This proof may be waived if you have an illness or disability that prevents you from acquiring this knowledge. This must be proven in a suitable form (e.g. by means of a specialist medical statement, proof of reasons that make it permanently impossible or unreasonable to acquire the knowledge).
- Proof of sufficient living space (rental or purchase contract that provides information about the living space)

The documents and information must always be submitted in German.

In individual cases, the immigration authority may require fewer or additional documents.

Voraussetzungen

- You have a valid EU Blue Card (residence permit).
- Within the scope of the EU Blue Card issued, you have worked in a job that corresponds to your qualifications and received a salary that corresponds to the applicable annual minimum gross salary (in 2022, for example, this is EUR 56,400.00; for so-called shortage occupations, the limit in 2022 is EUR 43,992.00).
- You would like to continue working in a job that matches your qualifications and pays the corresponding minimum salary.
- You can support yourself and your family without claiming public benefits.
- You have adequate health insurance cover.
- You have a permanent work permit.
- If you work in a regulated profession, you must be in possession of the required professional license (e.g. approbation or professional permit).
- If you wish to obtain a settlement permit after 21 months: You have been in possession of an EU Blue Card for a period of 21 months and can provide evidence of employment subject to compulsory insurance for this period. You have sufficient knowledge of the German language at level B1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for

Verfahrensablauf

- You must apply for a settlement permit before the validity of your current EU Blue Card expires.
- Find out whether your immigration authority allows you to apply online or has a special application form.
- If you can only apply in person, arrange an appointment with your local immigration office. If you apply online, the immigration office will contact you after receiving your application to arrange an appointment.
- During the appointment at the Foreigners' Registration Office, your identity and supporting documents will be checked (please bring your documents to the appointment, in the original if possible).
- If your application is approved, the Foreigners' Registration Office will arrange for your settlement permit to be produced by the Federal Printing Office (in the form of an electronic residence permit, or eAT card for short). Your fingerprints will be taken for this purpose.
- After completion, you will receive information and can collect the eAT card from the relevant office. As the
