Sachverhalt

A student exchange is a temporary stay at a school, which generally does not exceed one year and is often organized by student exchange organizations. A privately or commercially organized exchange year is also possible. No direct exchange ("one-to-one") is required in order to obtain a residence permit (guest student).

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- Recognized and valid identity document (e.g. passport or passport substitute)
- Current biometric photo in passport format (45 x 35 mm)
- Visa, if required for entry
- Proof that you are able to support yourself without claiming public benefits (e.g. equity capital, scholarship certificate, declaration of commitment, blocked account at a bank, bank guarantee, proof of parental income or similar). For student exchanges, the current BAföG rate (Federal Training Assistance Act) applies as a guideline. For language courses, the BAföG rate plus a surcharge of 10 percent.
- Proof of health insurance cover (e.g. confirmation of health insurance cover or insurance policy).
- For minors: Consent of all persons with custody rights to the planned stay (declaration of consent); if the parents with custody rights cannot submit the application jointly for their child, a written power of attorney from the absent parent is required; if only one parent has custody rights, the signature of this parent is sufficient

Additionally for attending a language course:

- Proof of admission to the language course (e.g. confirmation of registration or contract)
- Curriculum vitae in tabular form (if available: Certificates, diplomas or proof of previously acquired knowledge of the German language.
- Letter of motivation stating why the language course should be attended and what plans are being pursued for the time after the language course)

Additionally for participation in a student exchange:

- Proof of school attendance (e.g. certificate from the

Sachverhalt

- A residence permit can be issued to attend a language course in Germany or to take part in a student exchange.
- The applicant's means of subsistence (including health insurance) must be secured, i.e. they must be able to support themselves without claiming public benefits (the current BAföG rate applies as a guideline for student exchanges and the BAföG rate plus 10 percent for language courses).
- If the applicant has not yet reached the age of 18, the legal guardians must agree to the stay in Germany.
- The language course must be an intensive language course that serves to acquire comprehensive German language skills, but not to prepare for studies (an intensive language course requires that its duration is limited in time from the outset, usually at least 18 lessons per week; weekend courses do not meet the requirements).
- A student exchange is a temporary stay at a school, which usually does not exceed one year and is often organized by student exchange organizations. Privately or commercially organized exchange years are also possible.
- The term "student exchange" also includes guest students who complete a guest school year in Germany without a direct exchange ("one-to-one").
- Responsible: the foreigners authority responsible for the applicant's place of residence

Ansprechpunkt

Zuständige Stelle

The foreigners authority responsible for the applicant's place of residence is responsible for processing the application.
