submitted in German. In individual cases, the Immigration Office may require less or further proof.

Voraussetzungen

- You are a national of a country outside the EU or the EEA.
- You are the spouse or partner of a German national.
- You and your spouse or partner have reached the age of 18.
- Your German spouse or partner has their habitual residence in Germany (i.e. their main place of residence is not only temporarily in Germany).
- Your marriage/ civil partnership with the German national is valid and still exists.

Please note: The validity of the marriage depends on the form and marriage requirements specified at the place of marriage. The marriage no longer exists if it has been divorced, annulled or declared invalid by an incontestable decision of a competent body.

- You and your spouse/cohabiting partner live together as a family (e.g. sharing a home). If you do not live together in a shared home, you may be considered to be living together as a family if you maintain regular contact with each other that goes beyond mere visits.
- You can at least communicate in a simple way in German (level A1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages). This may be waived if no German courses are offered in your country of origin, if they are too expensive or if you are unable to attend them for other reasons.

Please note: under certain circumstances, the immigration authority may oblige you to attend an integration course. This will then be noted on your residence permit.

- There is no interest in deporting you.

Your stay does not jeopardize or impair the interests of the Federal Republic of Germany.
