Sachverhalt

you have a GdB of 50 or more, you can be issued with a severely disabled person's pass.

In addition to the degree of disability, certain health restrictions can also result in the identification of special features. These characteristics are entered in the severely disabled person's pass and entitle you to further compensation for disadvantages.

You can apply for the following marks:

G - significant impairment of mobility in road traffic

aG - exceptional walking disability

H - helplessness

B - entitlement to be accompanied at all times when using public transport

RF - Reduced radio license fee and/or reduced telephone connection fee

GL - deafness

BL - Blindness

TBL - Deafblindness (exemption from broadcasting fees)

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- completed application form
- signed release from confidentiality
- if applicable, power of attorney, proof of guardianship, proof of custody
- for nationals of a non-EU member state: copy of the residence permit
- if you live abroad and work in Germany: certificate from your employer

Optional:

- Documents about your state of health (e.g. doctor's letters, hospital reports, rehabilitation reports, medical reports)
- Notifications from other bodies regarding a reduction

Hinweise

You can submit an application under the law on severely disabled persons at any time. Although an informal application is possible, you will need to complete the application form afterwards.

You must give your written consent for your data to be passed on to the service provider before an ID card can be issued.

In order to claim the disability lump sum from the tax authorities, you must provide your tax ID and consent to the transfer of data.

A release from confidentiality signed by you is required for further clarification of the facts.

Your obligation to cooperate in the procedure (obligation) arises from § 60 Para. 1 of the First Book of the German Social Code (SGB I). If you do not comply with this obligation, the determination in accordance with SGB IX may be refused in whole or in part if the requirements are not met.
