Teaser	If you would like to gain access to the telematics infrastructure (TI) in the healthcare sector, you will need an electronic healthcare professional card (eHBA) if you work in a healthcare profession.
Volltext	The electronic health professional card (eHBA) is a chip card for the personal authentication of persons in healthcare professions. The eHBA gives you access to the telematics infrastructure (TI). The TI networks all those involved in the healthcare system and will enable access to the electronic patient file (ePA), for example. There are different eHBAs for different professional groups. There is an eHBA for: • Doctors • Persons in healthcare professions • Pharmacists and pharmacists You can use this online service to apply for an eHBA as a non-registered person in a healthcare profession. This includes: • Healthcare professionals • Nurses and nurses • Nurses for the elderly • midwives • Physiotherapists and physiotherapists

Modul	Sachverhalt
	• Emergency paramedics • Occupational therapists • Speech therapists • Podiatrists and podiatrists To obtain the eHBA, you must first register in the electronic healthcare professional register (eGBR). You then apply for the eHBA from a trust service provider (VDA). The VDA charges an annual fee, which can vary from VDA to VDA.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Completed application form • Scan or photo of your professional license (professional license certificate) • Proof of name change (e.g. marriage certificate), if applicable
Voraussetzungen	• You must present a professional license. • You must pay the administrative fee.
Kosten	Verwaltungsgebühr: 40€ There is a fixed administration fee of EUR 40.00. The selected VDA also charges its own costs for providing the eHBA.
Verfahrensablauf	You can apply for an electronic health professional card (eHBA) online: • Go to the specialist portal of the electronic Health Professions Register (eGBR) and complete the online application • Entry in the eGBR costs a one-off administration fee. • Once your application has been received, your professional authorization will be checked. • Once the check has been completed, you will receive an email with the results of the check and your process number. • Use the transaction number to order your eHBA as a chip card from a trust service provider (VDA) of your choice for a fee.
