company or other training position. You will also receive 12 hours of instruction per week at a vocational college (part-time instruction).

In year 12, you will expand your vocational knowledge, skills and abilities and prepare for the Fachhochschulreife examination in full-time lessons.

In the vocational learning area, the profile subjects as well as mathematics, natural sciences (only in year 12), English, computer science or business informatics (only in year 12) and economics (only in year 12) are taught. Interdisciplinary subjects are German/communication, religious education, sport/health promotion (only in year 12) and politics/social studies. Further subjects can be chosen from the differentiation area (only in year 12), depending on what is on offer and individual inclination.

Graduation:

If you successfully complete the course, you will be awarded the Fachhochschulreife.

Follow-up options:

- Vocational training
- Study at a university of applied sciences
- in the field of social work: Technical college

Follow-up options:

Modul

Sachverhalt

- Study at a university of applied sciences
- After completing the course, students with work experience can obtain a subject-specific or general higher education entrance qualification in one year at the Fachoberschule Klasse 13 (FOS 13).

Fachoberschule (Annex D)

Fachoberschule, year 13

The Fachoberschule, grade 13 introduced in NRW is called Berufsoberschule in other federal states.

If you opt for a Fachoberschule course within Annex D, the following applies:

Objective:

Deepening of vocational knowledge, skills and abilities and acquisition of the general or subject-specific higher education entrance qualification (for those with professional experience)

If you have the Fachhochschulreife and vocational training or many years of professional experience, you can obtain the general or subject-specific higher education entrance qualification (Abitur) in one year at the vocational college in the Fachoberschule grade 13 (FOS 13).

This course builds on the one-year Fachoberschule (grade 12 B) for those with professional experience and forms the second stage of a two-year full-time course at the Fachoberschule, which leads to a general or subject-specific higher education entrance qualification.

Teaching

The full-time course lasts one year.

General higher education entrance qualification and second foreign language:

To obtain the general higher education entrance qualification, you must demonstrate knowledge of a second foreign language. In the Fachoberschule (FOS 13), this is possible through

- Proof of at least four years of continuous instruction at lower secondary level or instruction at a vocational college totaling 320 hours and a final grade of sufficient or
- Acquisition of a foreign language certificate at level B 1 (in accordance with the framework agreement of the Standing Conference of the Ministers of Education and Cultural Affairs of November 20, 1998).

Qualifications

Modul

Sachverhalt

If you successfully complete the course, you will receive the general higher education entrance qualification (Abitur) or, if you cannot provide evidence of a second foreign language to the required extent, the subject-specific higher education entrance qualification.

Follow-up options:

- With a general higher education entrance qualification: study at all universities
 - Study relevant courses (oriented towards the school subject areas/specialist focus) at all universities in Germany
 - Study at all universities of applied sciences
- With a subject-specific higher education entrance qualification:

The school management decides on admission to a Fachoberschule.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

- This is a matter for the school authorities, if necessary:
- a copy of the last school report
 - possibly passport photos
 - possibly further documents depending on the school.

Voraussetzungen

In order to be admitted to the Fachoberschule grades 11 and 12, you must have a secondary school leaving certificate (Fachoberschulreife) or the entitlement to attend the gymnasiale Oberstufe.

For admission to technical secondary school grade 12 B, you must have a secondary school leaving certificate (Fachoberschulreife) or the entitlement to attend the gymnasiale Oberstufe as well as completed relevant vocational training or at least four years of relevant work experience. The vocational training/professional experience must be oriented towards the school subjects or the subject specializations.

For admission to the Fachoberschule grade 13 (FOS 13), you must have the Fachhochschulreife and at least two years of successfully completed relevant vocational training or at least five years of relevant professional experience. The vocational training/professional activity must be oriented towards the subject area or subject focus.
