a German child on a foreign-flagged seagoing vessel is the registry office in whose jurisdiction this person has or last had their place of residence or habitual abode in Germany. If this does not result in jurisdiction, the registry office in whose jurisdiction the applicant has or last had his or her domicile or habitual residence in Germany shall certify the birth. If there is no jurisdiction, the registry office I in Berlin will notarize the birth.

Erforderliche Unterlagen

The following documents are required:

- foreign birth certificate of the child with translation into German, which has been carried out and certified by an officially recognized translator and, if necessary, legalization or apostille (an international birth certificate may be sufficient)
- for parents who are married to each other: Birth certificates of the parents Marriage certificate or a notarized printout from the marriage register
- for parents who are not married to each other: Birth certificate of the mother if paternity has already been recognized: Declaration of acknowledgment of paternity and the mother's declaration of consent Birth certificate of the father if applicable, the declaration of custody
- valid identity card, passport or a recognized passport replacement document of the parents

A marriage certificate and proof of dissolution of marriage must also be submitted if the marriage has since been dissolved or the husband has died within 300 days prior to the birth of the child.

If necessary, the registry office may request the submission of further documents, if necessary with translation, legalization or apostille.

Voraussetzungen

The following requirements must be met:

- Birth on a seagoing vessel

Persons entitled to apply for the subsequent certification of a birth on a sea-going vessel registered under a foreign flag:
