| Teaser                           | For cultural assets worthy of protection, you can applyto the relevant certifying authority for a certificate forthe tax office regarding production and maintenancemeasures and their costs.   |
| Volltext                         | You can claim tax concessions for production andmaintenance measures on cultural assets worthy ofprotection that are neither used to generate incomenor for your own residential purposes, particularly inconnection with your income tax return.Among other things, you will need a special certificatefor this, which you can apply for as the owner or as theauthorized representative/agent of the owner from therelevant certifying authority. |
|                                  | You can present the certificate as proof when applyingfor tax relief at the relevant tax office. In addition to thecertificate, the tax office will also check other taxrequirements that must also be met in order for you toreceive the tax relief.   |

| Modul                    | Sachverhalt  |
|--------------------------|--|
| Erforderliche Unterlagen | <ul> <li>For representation: Power of attorney,</li> <li>Planning documents inventory,</li> <li>Planning documents with entry of the measures,</li> <li>Coordination of the measures before the start of the measure (e.g. building permit, listed building permit),</li> <li>Original invoices (final invoices; partial invoices and cost estimates do not replace final invoices),</li> <li>Receipts (must clearly show quantity, item and price)</li> </ul>   |
|                          | The certifying authority makes the invoices available to the owners again after checking and, if necessary, correcting them.   |
| Voraussetzungen          | <ul> <li>As the owner, you will only receive the certificate for production and maintenance measures on cultural assets worthy of protection that are neither used to generate income nor for your own residential purposes.</li> <li>If the cultural asset is a building or part of a building, measures that are necessary for its appropriate use are also eligible for certification.</li> <li>In general, however, only those measures can be certified that you have agreed in writing with the certifying authority before the start of the measure. The agreement or consent of the certifying authority can be obtained as part of a listed building permit.</li> </ul> |
| Kosten                   | The use of this administrative service is subject to a fee. The fees incurred are not included in the expenses eligible for certification.   |
| Verfahrensablauf         | You can apply for the certificate in writing as the ownerof the cultural property or as the authorizedrepresentative/authorized representative of the owner.The competent certifying authority then checks• the requirements,• the amount of the costs incurred for the measureseligible for certification• whether and to what extent subsidies from publicfunds have been granted by the authorities   |

|                                 | responsible for the preservation of monuments orarchives or the cultural property or will be grantedafter the certificate has been issued.  |
|                                 | You will then receive a certificate which, among otherthings, is a prerequisite for claiming tax benefits.In order to provide you with clarity about the contentof the expected certificate at an early stage, thecertifying authority can already provide you with awritten assurance about the expected certificate.However, the assurance does not replace thecertificate. It is therefore not suitable as proof whenapplying to the tax office for tax benefits.However, if you have a legitimate interest, you can usethe assurance to apply to the tax office for bindinginformation, subject to a fee, on the expectedassessment basis for the tax benefits.   |
