Volltext	Interpreters are generally sworn and translators are authorized for language translation for judicial and public prosecution purposes in the state of North Rhine-Westphalia. The work of interpreters includes oral and written translation, that of translators only the written translation of a language. The Presidents of the Higher Regional Courts of North Rhine-Westphalia keep a joint register of sworn interpreters and authorized translators, which can be inspected by anyone. The entry in the list is made with the application for general swearing-in or authorization. The following must be included in the register • Name, • address, • telecommunications connections, • profession, • any additional qualifications and • the respective language. The data required for this purpose may be collected and stored. The directory may be entered in automated retrieval procedures and published on the Internet.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Application for entry in the register • Application for general swearing-in or authorization
