Volltext	If you wish to organize other games with the possibility of winning (e.g. games of skill) on a commercial basis, you require a commercial permit from the competent authority. A game of skill exists if the person playing the game can determine the outcome of the game with a high degree of probability through skill or their own knowledge according to the game equipment and the rules of the game. In contrast, in games of chance, the decision on winning and losing is predominantly determined by chance. The permit does not entitle you to organize games of chance in general, but only relates to a specific game. It is bound to you as a person and to the venue. Permission can be granted to natural and legal persons. In the case of partnerships without their own legal personality (e.g. OHG, KG), a permit is required for each managing partner; this also applies to limited partners, provided they have management authority and are therefore to be regarded as traders. In the case of legal entities (e.g. GmbH, AG), the permit is issued to the legal entity. The permit may be issued for a limited period or subject to conditions if this is necessary for the
