Volltext	You will receive war victims' welfare benefits as a person with impaired health (known as an injured party) if you receive a basic pension or have a recognized entitlement to medical treatment. As an injured person, you will also receive war victims' welfare benefits for your family members if you are mainly responsible for their livelihood or were responsible for their livelihood before the injury. You will also receive war victims' welfare benefits if you are a surviving dependant of an injured person and receive a surviving dependant's pension, widow's or orphan's allowance. War victims' welfare benefits supplement pension benefits (e.g. benefits for medical and sickness treatment or pension payments) by providing special assistance in individual cases. The main beneficiaries are • War victims, • victims of violence, • victims of military service, • victims of civilian service, • Victims of state injustice in the GDR, • victims of vaccination • and their surviving dependants.
Erforderliche Unterlagen	• Application • Proof of recognition of an entitlement to benefits by the war victims' pension provider • Proof of income and assets
