vocational college courses leading to a general higher education entrance qualification.

The duration of the course depends on previous knowledge (qualification and level of education). A classification is made. The evening secondary school usually lasts two years (four semesters). Depending on your previous knowledge, you can shorten the duration of the course by up to two semesters. Lessons last 20 to 22 hours per week.

If you do not have a school-leaving certificate, you will usually have to attend a preliminary course. This also applies if your German language skills are insufficient, if you have no knowledge of a compulsory foreign language or if you have not reached year 9.

The head teacher decides on admission to an evening secondary school.
